

Appendix 1 Photographic examples of leaves showing levels of CLR disease severity observed each week, in tree #54 undergoing TV 2:1 treatment.

WEEK 1 (LEVEL 4)  A green leaf with several distinct yellowish-brown spots scattered across its surface, indicating a high level of disease severity.	WEEK 2 (LEVEL 4)  A green leaf with several distinct yellowish-brown spots, similar to Week 1, indicating a high level of disease severity.	WEEK 3 (LEVEL 3)  A green leaf with a few small, faint yellowish-brown spots, indicating a moderate level of disease severity.
WEEK 4 (LEVEL 2)  A green leaf with a few small, faint yellowish-brown spots, indicating a moderate level of disease severity.	WEEK 5 (LEVEL 1)  A green leaf with a few very small, faint yellowish-brown spots, indicating a low level of disease severity.	WEEK 6 (LEVEL 1)  A green leaf with a few very small, faint yellowish-brown spots, indicating a low level of disease severity.
WEEK 7 (LEVEL 1)  A green leaf with a few very small, faint yellowish-brown spots, indicating a low level of disease severity.	WEEK 8 (LEVEL 1)  A green leaf with a few very small, faint yellowish-brown spots, indicating a low level of disease severity.	WEEK 9 (LEVEL 2)  A green leaf with a few small, faint yellowish-brown spots, indicating a moderate level of disease severity.