

Culture plagues i – verbal templates to win the secular, psychological, family, educational, political and economic wars

Volume 7 Issue 1 - 2017

Perspective

“We are bringing them the plague.” Sigmund Freud to his Companions on board ship when traveling to the United States to introduce psychoanalytic doctrine (as quoted in Culture of Critique by Kevin MacDonald, 1998, page 106).

Brief facts are offered as verbal templates to challenge the arrogant ignorance of those promoting 16 current cultural plagues in post-Judeo-Christian society. To use or paraphrase these templates should help in the “culture war.” But first, a definition: A “plague is a calamitous disorder which afflicts many and disrupts society.”

1. The press and media is a plague of unethical misinformation, distortion, and corruption of everybody.¹ The world is flooded by the media with glamorized disgust, fraud, lies, with ruination of transcendental aspirations including loss of interest in truth, oneness, good and beauty. Too often, the press and media is collective, self aggrandizing power-mad evil no longer informing but manipulating the people to think how the editor thinks – and that is about it. The press and media have effectively suppressed free speech for the people because usually only “editor approved” speech is allowed. Make no mistake: what is not accepted is censored or distorted, and the American press and media in general are the biggest First Amendment frauds in the world. Sigma Delta Chi is dead and their ethics are: what can you get away with. The creation of non-being is evil, and that includes the incompetent, unreliable “think the editor’s way” which more often than not is an intellectual, social and moral Ponzi scheme leading to massive inertia with loss of real living replaced by loud non-being offerings of flickering lights and ink smudges. Also, the “free press” deprives people of choice, because no one can make a “free choice” without fair and balanced reality based information. Got a new or different idea from what the editor wants, forget about it! The tyrants of the press and media most often are a plague providing too much glitzy propaganda of deliberate untruths perpetrating vicious and vile frauds on the people, corrupting family and civic virtue. The liberal press and media care about nothing except the editors’ opinions and one phrase of the First Amendment and their pathological influence is such that we have government of, by and for the press and media. The press and media live by CONCEIT IN ACTION i.e., liberalism. There has never been a plague like the power ridden press and media who self-righteously care about nothing but thinking well of themselves and their arrogant answers for everything. (That 70% of English children have televisions sets in their rooms is socially insane, developmentally disastrous and national suicide. No child should watch television until they are 6 years old and only then with on-going Suggestibility Prevention Education.^{2,3})

2. Homosexuality is a plague.⁴ The power of this plague lay in the denial of its causes; the denial of the intrinsic, almost automatic problems that go with it; the money available for promotion (because homosexuals usually have no major “family” expenses and generally have no interest in supporting children except to recruit them); and the unethical, blind, one-sided support by the bought-out proselytizing press and media. Regardless, homosexuality is to humanity what gender deformed animals are to Lake Apopka in Florida. The homosexual epidemic today is caused by female-linked sex hormones (for contraception and other purposes) in the environment more than DDT ever was, with more detrimental effects, especially on males, including neurological disorders like attention deficit hyperactivity, autism and related developmental disorders, and especially homosexuality. The biological cause is the flood of female contraceptive hormones to the degree that homosexuals ARE themselves walking, talking ultimate “contraceptives,” alive and sometimes well (Is this “natural selection” or what?). Like all illnesses with a biological cause, homosexuality is neutral and people with it can be normal, as a diabetic or an epileptic if they treat themselves and act as normal. But the Gay Cult (homosexuality as a politicized disease) as activated and self-promoted, is a plague and a public health hazard carrying higher incidences of psychiatric problems as well as HIV/AIDS; and the Gay Cult’s totalitarianism of degrading, defaming and injuring those who disagree is sociopathic, uncivil, malevolent and sickening as they ironically do what they claim is being done to them. The psychological enthusiasm by and promotions for homosexuality are selfish, antisocial and self destructive by their reinforcing politicization of an ill state as they impose their entropic existence on the world. Gays are psychopathic when they deny an illness is an illness and when they perpetrate hate crimes by promoting their illness. For example, condom promotions are ineffective and about 70% of homosexual men with AIDs claim to have used protection!⁵ In addition, epidemiologic studies reveal that providing condoms has no impact at all on the spread of AIDS (and the denial of this by homosexuals is totally pathological). A normal person so suffering deserves all the help available in a positive way but the first step in being normal with a disease is admitting it and trying to control it so it does not affect or spread to others or interfere with other peoples' lives. THE ONLY RATIONAL AND CIVIL WAY TO DEAL WITH HOMOSEXUALITY IS AS A DISORDER OF FUNCTION...like all diseases is in fact disorders of function. (Parenthetically, besides the environmental flood of female hormones, homosexuality is psychologically reinforced and caused by "sexcretion" described in the next mentioned plague.)

3. Contemporary "sex" is a plague.⁶ (THE ONLY WAY THE CURRENT SEX CULTURE CAN BE NEUTRALIZED IS BY DIRTY-MINDED SCHOOLBOY ACCURATE MOCKING—the clergy cannot do it—only you and I can do it. Liberals won't like it—just tell them to watch Borat as he mocks nice, traditional people—just as we are going to mock "sex" exploiters.) Actually, most of what passes for "sex" today is not sex – but a form of excretion—a plague of excretion. In all nature on the planet, sex is limited to pheromone matching between males and females of the same species determining the time for reproduction which is all that sex is for in the entire animal kingdom. If humans forced ("forced" is the right word because that is the only way it could happen) animals to treat sex as humans do today, it would be animal cruelty pure and simple. This "sex" plague is due to contraception polluting "sexuality" from its natural function so that it is no longer environmentally and behaviorally consistent with the planet, i.e., in contemporary terms, human sex is no longer "green!" Thus, currently with contraception, so called "sex" is a form of "relief" i.e., excretion or more accurately: "sexcretion". And it is a plague predicted by Humanae Vitae to disrupt normal family relationships, civilized culture in tune with Nature and human development by a pseudo-recreational, para-toileting, obsessive compulsive preoccupation with genital-excretory squirt and slime reflexes far removed from natural function for animal sex life on the planet, which should include humans. Anything from humans not in concert with Nature is pollution, and that means "sex" outside of life-potential in marriage is as polluting as dumping trash, including sperm, blood and slime, on your front yard. This plague can only be prevented and defeated by the dirty minded schoolboy Borat-like demystification and deglorification of sex. My suggestions:

Sexcretion begins with sex hormone maturation such that males begin to squirt sperm and females begin to bleed eggs and slime. Sexcretion includes any and all sex organ use for anything other than reproduction. Squirt/sliming in any way outside of marriage is nothing more than a squirt/slime toileting function as is all other non-reproductive sexual activity. The genitals are linked to excretory organs with the expectation of privacy for all use, i.e., the linkage of urination, defecation, menstruation, and the non-reproductive squirt/slime reflex is undeniable. To those exploiting the body, one must say: Buttocks are bowel movement - anus protectors. Breasts are milk-cancer-sweat-fat-pontoon-pendulous-hanging-useless chest glands unless nursing an infant. Cleavage is nothing but obnoxious mooning by women. The penis, 99 % of the time, is for urinating in the right direction for males (or for making babies after you are married). The vagina is the canal through which most babies are delivered after you are married; it has urine in front of it, feces behind it, and it is filled with blood 1/4th of the time. Squirting and slime reflexes should not be one's sole identity or a major part of one's life any more than any other toileting or bathroom functions. Pornography is nothing more than people toileting each other i.e., helping each other "go to the bathroom."

This matter of fact describing of the basic biology of sex defuses sexual pollution faster than anything and thus people can get on with their lives without being polluted into sex fools. Such words are only needed for those exploiting sexuality or who are overly excited by explicit sexuality-and all these phrasings should be repeated until they stop their unnatural sex polluting. Finally, absurdity should be noted that millions must die because of the failure of people to control their squirt and slime reflexes, and that is another plague known as abortion (infra).

4. The sexualization of children is a plague.⁷ No child should be a participant in sexual activity nor should they be exposed to adult sexuality until their sex hormones and development are completed. Every child has the right to an unadulterated childhood, otherwise they have lost their childhood! No other animal sexualizes its immature offspring. Any curiosity about sex by a pre-adult can be met with the gentle, candid, and informing. My suggestions:

Adult sex is the penis goes in the vagina to make a baby after you are married. It seems weird and difficult to understand, but you do not have to bother with any of this yucky adult sex and other adult toileting stuff until you are all grown up so forget about it and ignore what you see or hear. You have better things to do and learn. You have a right to your childhood without doing adult stuff. You have plenty of time for this adult stuff which is often disgusting and hard work. Stay a kid as long as you can. Being an adult isn't easy. Do not rush it. Anyone who tells you different is a liar and wants to take advantage of you and is probably a pedophilia pervert who gets himself excited when telling children about adult sex – he (or she) should be arrested, so tell your parents and the police when someone imposes adulthood on a child.

The sexualization of children is a plague-like assault and a total disruption of their normal development as a child.

5. Abortion is a plague.⁷ In these days of nanotechnology, microsurgery, tool miniaturization, molecule identification, and chemical manipulation, to kill a microscopic human DNA creature is as psychopathic as wantonly killing any other human DNA creature. No one has the right to deform the destiny of any other human DNA creature without their permission. Abortion is also a plague because it is against "evolution" (if you believe in evolution). In fact, if evolution is believed with chance and natural selection, then abortion makes no sense at all. To kill human DNA microscopic creatures is indefensible rationalizing, is a sinful self-injuring failure to accept responsibility for one's own choices and actions and is a pagan, selfish, primitive murder not belonging in the 21st Century. Supposedly "created equal," all human DNA creatures deserve the same chances you and I had. No other animal aborts their own and thus, by abortion, mankind has never been more out of touch with the planet, evolution, the animal kingdom and nature. To deny the absolute equality of the pre-birth continuum of human life every human being went through, is an absolute lie, a crime against nature, a crime against humanity, and a cowardly failure to accept responsibility for the foreseeable consequences of one's own actions. Abortion is a holocaust offering to the squirt-slime unnatural sexcretion altar and, along with contraception, is the Holocaust Revenge, in view of the resulting current demographic and cultural destruction of Europe. Needed is an "Accept Responsibility For Your Choices Law" which prohibits abortion; gives the physicians the right to refuse to do abortions (and to refuse to assist suicides) under the 14th Amendment; gives any woman the choice to have her child with federal, state or private grants to cover

- a. The cost for the healthy delivery of her baby;
 - b. A five year annual bonus of $3,000 placed in a Health Savings Account each for herself and for her baby (or babies as the case may be);
 - c. Assistance in child care and child education expenses; and
 - d. Adoption services for mothers unwilling or unable to care for the baby after birth. Finally, if abortions are to be allowed, doctors should not have to do them but pro-abortion lawyers, judges, politicians and journalists should be required to do a minimum number each month (Anyone who knows how to have sex could do an abortion! Doctors are not needed, and, no doubt, the others could likely use the money).
6. Politicians and judges are a plague.⁹ Savoring and given life by the American democratic process from the Constitution, most politicians and all others elected in one way or another, as a group, with rare exceptions, are rich, power mad, crooks who think America can survive no matter what they can get away with. More and more, elected officials of all kinds (including judges selected by elected individuals) neither know where the Constitution came from nor do they care. They understand little to nothing about and have a strong, sick, self-serving, anti-historical need to deny the Judeo-Christian basis for this country. They are power mad, anti-intellectual and fundamentally “they do not care,” well hidden by copious empty mouthing to the contrary. Because politics is always a self-corrupting mess – you must go along to get along; politicians almost always turn into con-men or comedians and are rarely worth dying for. And the only reason politicians can get away with their crimes is because of their god, i.e., the press and media. Politicians only care about what the press and media will say or write about them, and thus all elected officials with the press & media make a mockery of America by continuous, Constitutional subversion and rejection of the Founders of America. The only answer is term limits for anyone in any elected office (and that means every office in the executive, legislative and judicial – especially judges appointed by the elected – branches) so there can be no personal empire and power building. Those in any office must operate by service and procedure codes as their only job and salary basis. This will confine them such that they will serve only the country and also will never be exempt from that which they have imposed on all other citizens. Finally, the children and grandchildren of all elected officials must serve in a special branch of the military which will be the first to engage in any military combat operations.
7. Atheism is a plague.¹⁰ Celebrated atheist Richard Dawkins is a classical stereotype of an atheist: I caught him in an absolute scientific fraud article, and reported him to Oxford University – where he now is a disgrace (All my articles were sent several times to all major newspaper but editors suppress free speech – can you imagine what they would have done if a major Catholic writer was caught in an outright bold-faced lie?). In general, atheists are in Dawkins’ category. Like dumb frogs unwilling to understand or believe in humans, atheists cannot believe or understand anything greater than themselves, which is either arrogance or lack of imagination). Then, by what is a crime against humanity, atheists begrudge and besmirch those who take comfort in God (which actually is an amazing example of unconscious counter-phobic jealousy by atheists). Also, atheists should be ignored not only because they are anti-religious bigots but because they have no spirit – and if they do proselytize, then they are liars and have “spirit” but just do not want to admit it.

Really, why do they bother with God and believers if it all is not real? They should just leave everyone alone, shut up and confine themselves to the subhumanity in which they only believe. Basically, atheists create an immoral environment and are totally un-American and against the Founders of America. Furthermore, atheists usually promote sexcretion because they follow Hitler’s colleague who proclaimed that “If you get people involved in deviant sexual behavior the whole idea of God just disappears automatically.” And, scientifically significant, atheists do not understand that the Universe is nothing more than the entropy necessary for Love-but that is way over their heads. Finally, for all public ceremonies of any nature, there can be no objection to quoting the Founding Fathers as from George Washington’s Thanksgiving Day Proclamation:

It is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly to implore His protection and favor... That great and glorious Being who is the beneficent author of all the good that was, that is, or that ever will be, that we may then unite in rendering unto Him our sincere and humble thanks for His kind care and protection of the people.”

Not even atheists can rationally object to quoting the Founding Fathers.

(These verbal templates will be completed in the next article if journal must divide—if not, the references can be moved and renumbered in proper sequence.)

8. Islam is a plague.¹¹ Unfortunately, most Muslims have been tricked and fooled into a violent Islam which is not the “original” or the same “Islam at the beginning” when Mohammed was in Mecca the first time (Mecca I). At the beginning, Mohammed was converted from his paganism by the local Jews and Catholics. He was a monotheist. He was a monogamist. He was a pacifist. He was preaching truth, oneness, good and beauty. He lived and let live. He had to have gone to Mass and must have attended Jewish rituals as well, all helping him to break free from the paganism in which he was born. However, his Judeo-Christian conversion was abrogated after Mecca I, because almost all Islam since then destroyed Mohammed and his original conversion by a massive fabrication of unauthenticated “Islamic scripture” by which believers can be manipulated into obscene screaming crowds and murderers of anyone who disagrees (some “religion”). After Mecca I, politicians converted the original Judeo-Christian Islam (“Islamic Judeo-Christianity” is probably more accurate) into a massive enslavement to a spurious Quran turned by the abrogators of Mecca I into a death manual. Indeed, so-called Islamic “warriors” are craven, flagrant, cowards killing thousands of innocent people including children, all defended by the anti-Mecca I Quran. In spite of its enchanting, convincing qualities, there is no human-to-human love encouraged in the Quran but power-mad ruthlessness instead. Until the demonic version of the Quran is no longer adored (bibliolatriy) and until Muslim leaders stop creating screaming mobs and suicide bombers and return to the love, freedom and sacrifice of Mohammed in Mecca I, Islam will remain a plague. Muslims must break away from their childhood upbringing and Mohammed is an outstanding example of someone to follow because he did it himself in Mecca I! (His being forced to leave Mecca I was an act of Satan). Until Muslims break away from their childhood as Mohammed did, they will be untrustworthy, loveless, and willing even to kill those who disagree because the post Mecca I Quran even encourages all evils and even prevarication on behalf of Islam. The Germans have a conscience and are guilt ridden for the Nazi suggestibility for evil. In contrast, Muslims are without conscience and have no guilt for any of their historic monstrous atrocities or their continuation of the same subhuman policies of unfreedom, oppression, intolerance, shrieking manipulated robot mobs, suicide bombers and the remorseless killing of innocents. Thus, Hitler is to Nazism as post Mecca I Mohammed is to Islam and Muslims do not even know it as a clear effect of the absence of conscience. Underneath it all, most Muslims today have returned to that anti-human, anti-religious paganism which Mohammed originally left behind, a paganism which now masquerades as a contrived “monotheism” without.¹²

9. Evolution is a plague.¹³ As currently presented, “evolution” is a plague because it diminishes spirituality and it is promoted as absolutely true when overwhelmingly there is no documentation of its reality as the “tree of life” and so on. Sketches are not proof and similarity is not identity. Actually, the main worry for evolutionists is that Darwin will become extinct – rightfully so. What evolutionists refuse to recognize is: First, that cross species miscegnation (for want of a better word) has never been documented; and that species procreate with their own kind only because sexual activity for subhuman animals is pheromone and chemically dependent (in contrast to humans who have escaped in part from subhumanity). If the pheromones do not match for subhuman animals, there will not be reproduction. Thus, major species cross breeding to hybridization (absolutely necessary for evolution) has never been found and therefore evolution as described thus far is impossible without natural hybrids. Second, that when humans force unnatural major cross breeding which results in hybrid animals, such as mules, we find that the created hybrid animals cannot reproduce (because of non-matching meiosis). Evolutionists can draw all they want and claim “same construction is same development” all they want, but without natural hybrids and, more so, without hybrid animal reproduction, there are no major allele transfers or evolution as “imagined” (one of Darwin’s favorite words). The plague of contemporary “evolution” detracts from real evolution as described in The Inferno by Dante. Genuine evolution means that the afterlife will provide all done in your earthly life but spiritually magnified immensely and more intensely in eternity—now that is real evolution! Unfortunately, this genuine evolution means that every sin would offer “payback in return” permanently if a mortal sin, and temporarily in purgatory if a venial sin. If deserving hell, it will be a never-ending infernal recycling self-created annihilation by your own sins turned against you over and over – you will not like it. Whatever you have done wrong will be done back to you worse than you can imagine. If, in purgatory, it will be a restoration by reliving and undoing one’s repairable sins but done this time to one’s self – you won’t like it either and you are going to pay; but it does end and cleansing recovery is in sight. And if, in Heaven, it will be a true, one, good and beautiful ecstasy proportional to your own lived truth, oneness, good and beauty – you will savor like never before – and this is only possible with the sacraments, especially Penance. Evolving to transcendental eternity will be more effected with Penance and reparation on earth – purgatory is lousy but better than hell. Evolution means “getting what you do” – so go to confession and evolve life transcendently. “Doing unto others as you would have them do unto you” evolutionarily means that “You will get back unto yourself what you have done unto others.” Better to “do good and avoid evil!” And get your sins forgiven. When
- you hear that “Jesus saved us from our sins” this is no fanciful statement but a recognition that you are “evolving” and you can control it by the sacraments, especially Penance. You can stop the self-induced punishments and the crumbling to miserable self-reliving, self-created non-being hell due to your sinful pursuit of non-being; what is more, you can even reestablish your personal transcendental integrity for eternity. This is real “evolution” and you are in control of it. The contemporary “tree of life” sketched fabrication (nee’ evolution) is extinct but it still detracts from human spiritual ascendancy. Mankind has escaped from many subhuman, biological bonds and does not even follow pheromones any longer. That escape from sub-human animal life does not stop there: Do good and avoid evil, and you will not be disappointed with real spiritual evolution.
10. Race is a plague.¹⁴ Race is currently misused as a false God causing more inequity and discriminatory action than equal opportunity for all people. The only race that really counts is the “human race” – and, that there is a oneness for humanity which requires us to embrace “everyone for everyone” always. All races are more alike than different, as all are alike, for a few examples, in proclamations of greatness, in lamentations of victimhood, and in wishes for preservation of one’s hopefully positive history. Thus color “race” blindness is the only way to go regardless of outcome – it is the only fair and equal way for humans to treat each other. Considering what most American families went through to get to America, a case can be made that for most current African Americans, slavery was the luckiest thing that ever happened for them, otherwise they would likely be dead or destitute in Africa. Someone paid for all of us being here in America and many in a terrible way, but none of that should be used as an excuse for not succeeding or for not assuming responsibility for one’s self and others. U.S. Congressman Louis Stokes has said over and over “I’ve been in every country in the world and there is no better place and no place I would rather be than the United States.” And most African Americans would not be here if it had not been for slavery. As President Barack Obama has indicated, “Stop complaining and make the most of it.” Using the victimhood ploy is an outrage for whatever reason. “Poor me” never worked and never will. No one should have anything taken away from them because of their race – and no one should have anything given to them because of their race. To use race for anything is a plague. Race should not be recorded or considered for anything. Basically, IF YOU ACKNOWLEDGE RACE (“color” more than as simple description) YOU ARE A RACIST, and the end result is a plague of injustice.
11. Celebrityism is a plague.¹⁵ Never has the original sin of suggestibility/gullibility been more apparent than when people mindlessly follow celebrities. Unless proving otherwise by clear, traditional virtue, celebrities should be regarded as fakes, actors, and frauds who arrogantly think they are as important as that which they have pretended and acted out. Celebrities tend to be non-being glamorizers, and youths especially need to know not to imitate or be influenced by them. Celebrities most often are the result of press and media manipulations. An epitome of celebrity is Walter Cronkite – his tombstone should be “He read the news” (say that 3 times—and that is about all he ever did) but because of celebrityism, the people made him much more than what he was. Celebrities are fakes, liars, and examples of suggestibility run amuck. They are all nothings and fakes reciting their lines and calling it a “living” when they are nothing but flickering lights or screen-filled “look-at-me”-freaks (e.g. Michael Franklin).

That they influence us and impress us is insane and a cause of psychosocial diseases. Just remember, that they are ACTING—pretending all the time—which is an epidemic of non-being—and the promotion of non-being IS evil.

12. Anti-Catholicism is a plague.¹⁶ It is amazing that the standards which prohibit the disparaging of groups rarely apply to anti-Catholic bigots who unashamedly distort the history of the Inquisition, the Holocaust, child abusing clergy, Father Coughlin (the “radio” priest), and just about Catholic anything. Any one or group repeating any lies about the Church should be ostracized or boycotted until apologies are made. The real unrecognized hate crime and prejudice is the persistent defaming of the Church accompanied by the absolute denial that it is bigotry. Not that the Church is perfect; my father would always say, “You know the Church is divine because with the leadership she has had, she should not have lasted 50 years.” Sinners fill the Church, but the principles of the Church are love, freedom and sacrifice—and the Church is the only organization so committed. Oh, it doesn’t do a good enough job because most people do not understand and the task is impossible, but the Church is the only organization in which all principles, one way or another, are to foster Love, Freedom, and necessary Sacrifice. The most cogent way the Church does this is by the Mass. The Mass properly attended is an intense meditation trance experience far surpassing any other sort of spiritual or meditation exercise one can have or conjure up (but only if properly attentive as an inward focusing metaphorical reality event of life-sacrifice-virtue-love-humanity-peace-freedom-death (instead of “om” or whatever) which takes you everywhere and “out of this world”). The Mass is an antidote to the press and media and is the only place where you are going to get really believable information which is relevant to all life and how to live all life including death, humanity and love. The tsunami of nothingness from the manipulators of the electronocelluloidprint non-being machines are counter-acted by taking whatever in mind to Mass. Properly understood and experienced, the Mass is where one gets cleansed with the same grace that fell and energized St. Paul. Each Mass is a Damascene event if one participates and immerses in it fully. One is in the midst of the Lord our God and such is the farthest thing from passively watching television, because the Mass is a love potion by what it conveys and how it processes all on your mind. Each Mass is another “Christmas Day” because Christ is born anew at each Mass and then dies, is Crucified, for us on the altar in a metaphorical reality of blood separate from the body resulting in the symbiotic relationship of love, freedom and sacrifice. The themes of love in the Mass are present in almost every reading, phrase, song and prayer. And when one is not hearing about love, in one way or another, one is witnessing the description of the sacrifices and suffering which love and freedom require if genuine. The Mass: That freedom/sacrifice/love promoting truth, oneness, good and beauty for everyone’s life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. And people shake hands offering peace to total strangers! I have promised my grandchildren $20 if they can recite this from memory:
1. Break the bread and bless the wine and join Jesus with all others so sanctified in a Statimuum of all, with all, and for all Incarnated by Love, Freedom and Sacrifice in a universe received and receiving one time for all time praising God in unlimited Spirituality of Consubstantiation/Transubstantiation. Amen. (YEAH!)
2. The Church and its sinners are in marked contrast to editors and leaders of the press and media and other know-it-all similar to Il Duce or Barack Obama imitators gone bad. The lies about the Church are a plague of hate crimes and the failure to prosecute and condemn those responsible is prejudice, bigotry and discrimination, pure and simple.
13. Traitorous CEOs are a plague.^{17,18} The unpatriotic destruction of America’s economic and productive base by thousands of CEOs is criminal. After bleeding companies by outrageous salaries and benefits compared to their employees, CEOs “sell out” (“selling out” is exactly what it is) to foreign countries giving them the businesses, the factories and the jobs. The economic sabotage of America is blatant, undeniable, and unpatriotic. Worse than that, politicians have been bought and sold to approve all this as co-traitors, a routine status for most politicians after two terms in office. And the press and media have not the faintest idea what is going on or does not care because the only part of America editors care about is the one simple phrase about the press in the First Amendment. Needed are service and procedure codes consistent with the Founding Fathers’ writings for which executives are to be paid just like physicians today. Such codes also need to be mandatory for lawyers, judges, politicians, editors and journalists.
14. Invasion is a plague.¹⁹ Immigration is as American as apple pie. But most recent immigrants have it wrong and are more invaders than immigrants, because they seem to be coming over for handouts and want to bring what they were fleeing. Muslims and Hispanics especially seem to be unwittingly injuring America because they do not understand that coming here must be with a desire to be an “American” eager to embrace and preserve the principles which have made America great. Acculturation is essential and that includes wanting to be productive and to work. America is no place for parasites. Indeed, once the “invaders” reach a critical number, America will likely become just another country filled with government seeking, government dependent deadbeats creating and building nothing. Immigrants coming to America must learn the principles which created America and that includes the Declaration of Independence, the U.S. Constitution and all the writings of the Founding Fathers in English.²⁰
15. Unscientific scientists are a plague.²¹ More and more scientists manipulate data and adjust numbers “to make the numbers turn out right” for political and social reasons. This seems especially true in regards to sexuality, reproduction, and abortion issues. Such is the pursuit of non-being (and therefore “evil”). No sustained good can come from fraudulent science. It should be labeled “criminal” because it is destructive of the country. Any scientist found to withhold data or to distort it (like Richard Dawkins) should be defrocked and prohibited from working anywhere in science.
16. Postmodernism is a plague.²² Professing that if all cannot be known, nothing is known including the objectivity of others, postmodernism is a nihilistic transcendentophobia rejecting even the laws of physics. It’s logic is “believe in myself only” by a self-filled, obsessional, non-biological, masturbation of thoughts (solipsism) which denies power as it destroys everything else by the unfettered, ruthless power of nihilism. Escapism is its forte as memories are considered to be unreal phantoms resulting in loss of patriotism, national character, tradition and transcendental Christianity. The universal, thanatological outcomes of postmodernism are always temporarily covered by unctuous, ephemeral spasms of ersatz “goodness” masquerading as “freedom,” which it is not. A paragon of postmodernism is Michel Foucault, a French philosopher (sic) of meaningless logorrhea against all “power” as he destroyed all meaning in all he observed including denying himself even as a philosopher, finally living out all his sadomasochistic fantasies in San Francisco, to die in Paris of AIDS in 1984--also objectively (over his dead body) proving the plague status of both homosexuality and postmodernism. Actually, postmodernism, as almost all other philosophies, can honestly be characterized as, to use a psychoanalytic term, reaction-formation to Natural Law and the Roman Catholic Church.

Enough. We are in a plague of plagues. These verbal templates should help.
